

Curial Security Website Privacy Policy - Effective Date: 1 August 2024

This privacy statement forms part of Curial Security website terms and conditions. If you do not agree with any term of this privacy statement, you must cease your access of this website immediately.

1. Introduction Welcome to Curial Security. We are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring the security of any personal information you may provide when visiting our website. This privacy policy outlines our practices and your rights in relation to personal data under the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA) and other relevant laws.

2. Information We Collect Currently, Curial Security does not collect personal or sensitive information through our website. Should this change, we will update our policy accordingly and notify you of any such changes.

3. Use of Your Information Any personal information collected in the future will be used solely for the purpose it was collected, primarily to enhance and personalize your experience with our sales services, unless otherwise stated or consented to by you.

4. Disclosure of Your Information Curial Security will not share your personal information with third parties unless required by law or explicitly consented to by you.

5. Data Security Curial Security takes reasonable technical and organizational measures to secure your personal information and protect it against unauthorized or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction, or damage. Since our website is hosted on WIX Studio, we rely on their robust security measures to protect your information.

6. User Rights You have the right to:

- Access the personal information that Curial Security may hold about you.
- Request the correction or deletion of personal information that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, or obtained unlawfully.
- Object to the processing of personal information.
- Submit a complaint to the Information Regulator if you believe there has been interference with the protection of the personal information.

7. Cookies and Tracking Technologies Our website uses cookies and other tracking technologies to improve your user experience and to analyse website traffic and trends. Information gathered through cookies is used in a non-identifiable way, without any reference to your personal information.

8. International Data Transfers Should there be a need to transfer your personal information internationally, Curial Security will ensure the transfer complies with applicable law and that the information is protected to the same standards as it is within South Africa.

9. Policy Updates This policy may be amended from time to time in accordance with changes in legal requirements or our internal data protection practices. We will provide notice of any significant amendments, and you are encouraged to review this policy periodically.
